Psalms 49-51; 61-66; 69-72; 77-78; 86-86

"I WILL DECLARE WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR MY SOUL"

Summary:

Psalm 49. Men cannot be ransomed or redeemed by wealth—God alone can redeem a soul from the grave—The glory of a rich man ceases with his death.

Psalm 50. Asaph speaks of the Second Coming—The Lord accepts the sacrifices of the righteous and will deliver them—Those whose conduct is right will see the salvation of God.

Psalm 51. David pleads for forgiveness after he went in to Bathsheba—He pleads, Create in me a clean heart, and renew a right spirit within me.

Psalm 61. David finds shelter in the Lord, abides in the Lord's presence, and keeps his own vows.

Psalm 62. David praises God as his defense, his rock, and his salvation—The Lord judges men according to their works.

Psalm 63. David thirsts for God, whom he praises with joyful lips. (A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.)

Psalm 64. David prays for safety—The righteous will be glad in heart.

Ps alm 65. David speaks of the blessedness of God's chosen—The Lord sends rain and good things upon the earth.

Psalm 66. Praise and worship the Lord—He tests and tries men—Sacrifices are to be offered in His house.

Psalm 69. A messianic psalm of David—The zeal of the Lord's house has eaten Him up—Reproach has broken His heart—He is given gall and vinegar to drink—He is persecuted—He will save Zion.

Psalm 70. David proclaims, Let God be magnified.

Psalm 71. David praises God with thanksgiving—Who is like unto the Lord!

Psalm 72. David speaks of Solomon, who is made a type of the Messiah—He will have dominion—His name will endure forever—All nations will call him blessed—The whole earth will be filled with the glory of the Lord.

Psalm 77. The righteous cry unto the Lord—They remember the wonders of old, how He redeemed the sons of Jacob and led Israel like a flock.

Psalm 78. The Israelites are to teach the Lord's law to their children—Disobedient Israel provoked the Lord in the wilderness—The Egyptian plagues are recounted—The Lord chooses and blesses Judah and David.

Psalm 85. The Lord speaks peace to His people—Truth will spring out of the earth (the Book of Mormon), and righteousness will look down from heaven.

Psalm 86. David implores God for mercy and is saved from the lowest hell—The Lord is good and generous in mercy—All nations will worship before Him.

Supplemental Jewish and Holy Land Insights

Psalm Verses:	Connecting	God."	of faith, yea, even if thoughts and		ye can no more scriptures:		than desire to
	D " ' "		believe, let this
Psalm 49:15 "But	Resurrection is the		desire work in you,
God will redeem my	gift for all.		even until ye
soul from the power			believe in a manner
of the grave: for he			that ye can give shall receive me."			place for a portion Psalm 49:3 "Be			of my words." (Alma merciful unto me."		(2.2.	32 27) merchar anto me.		Psalm 51:2 "Wash	Only the Lord will
		me thoroughly from	forget our sins
		mine iniquity and	(through the cleanse me from	ordinance of my sin. For I	repentance and acknowledge my	baptism forgiveness
Psalm 49:11 "Teach		transgressions: and	of sins), He is the
		my sin is ever	only one that paid me thy way, O		before me."	for them all. "I will
LORD; I will walk in			forgive their iniquity, thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy			and I will remember
name."			their sin no more."
Hallie.			(Jeremiah 31:31)
Psalm 49:17 "Shew			Remembering our
me a token for			sins keeps reminding us of His good; that they which hate me may			mercy! The unusual see it, and be			sacrifice of the Red ashamed: because			Calf in (Numbers 19) refers to the
thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and			purification for sin.
comforted me."			That was performed on the Mount of Communica IIIC.
Psalm 50:23 "Whoso	"But behold, if ye		Olives, above the offereth praise	will awake and		temple wall and still north of the altar. It glorifieth me: and to	arouse your		is likely the him that ordereth	faculties, even to an		Gethsemane and his conversation	experiment upon		the Messiah's aright will I shew	my words, and		second-coming-in-the salvation of	exercise a particle
u ic saivauon oi	everoise a harricle		red-clothing

Ication. The reading from the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I." In the sanctuary, and the kindling of the sanctuary and the kindling of the sanctuary and the kindling of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the sanctuary and the kindling of the sanctuary and the kindling of the sanctuary and the kindling of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the sanctuary is another sensitive parallel to be seen in the lesson Moses learned as he struck the rock. Giving "Living Water" to the Israelites, Moses was reminded who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. Peter (a Greek nickname for Simon), son of Jonah, who when sinking in the Sea of Galliee cried out to the Lord, "Save me," was probably being taught—as Moses was—who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! Psalm 62:7 "In God is an hymed of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my God my		Τ	1
the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I." It is another sensitive parallel to be seen in the lesson Moses learned as he struck the rock. Giving "Living Water" to the Israelites, Moses was reminded who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. Peter (a Greek nickname for Simon), son of Jonah, who when sinking in the Sea of Galilee cried out to the Lord, "Save me," was probably being taught—as Moses was—who doses was—who dose was—who authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the entry reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvation and my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvation and my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvation and my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my salvat will cry unto thee, when my heart is brought by the profines at the dedication of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judalea Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is a rite of the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruiling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	Psalm 61:2 "From	"The reading from when my heart is overwhelmed: lead met to the rock that is higher than 1." a dedication of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") was probably being taught—as Moses was enholed who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be	the end of the earth	the Torah describes			trouble" There is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I." In the lesson Moses learmed as he struck the rock. Giving "Living Water" to the sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung, "(Encyclopedia Judalca Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-rulling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	will I cry unto thee,	the sacrifices			another sensitive me to the rock that is higher than I." dedication of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haffarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	when my heart is	brought by the			parallel to be seen me to the rock that is higher than I." Addication of the sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judalca Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my glory: the rock (Giving Living Water to the Israelites, Moses was reminded who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. Peter (a Greek nickname for Simon), son of Jonah, who when sinking in the Sea of Galliee cried out to the Lord, "Save me," was probably being taught—as Moses was— who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be	overwhelmed: lead	princes at the			in the lesson Moses sanctuary, and the kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of mick may probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the elernal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	me to the rock that				learned as he kindling of the candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-rulling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	 	sanctuary, and the			struck the rock.
candelabrum; special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-rulling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		3 · special haftarot are prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my prescribed for the Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-rulling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Sabbaths of Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed pome of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my					•
Hanukkah. In the Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation in the Sea of Galilee cried out to the Lord, "Save me," was probably being taught—as Moses was—who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be Ashkenazi rite, a hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my hymn called Ma'oz Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Zur (O Fortress, Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		,			•
Rock of my salvation) is sung." (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.) Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever-ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		_
Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		,			, ,
Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my					*
Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Psalm 62:7 "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." "ADON OLAM ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my ("Lord of the world") is a rhymed poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my	Pealm 62:7 "In God	•			• my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." Sod." Sod." Moses was—who the real "Rock of Salvation" was. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be of my strength, and my refuge, is in God." poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my poem of unknown authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be	_	,			• my refuge, is in God." authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my authorship, which was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		-
Was probably written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Was probably written in Babylon around the tenth centruh. Lord's highest trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		•			  written in Babylon around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- rulling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Trusted servants on the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		• around the tenth century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my the earth were honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be	God.				• century. The present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my The honored with titles or names emulating their Master, reminding them that HE is the master. Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		_ present version, as it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be it appears in the Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		1
Ashkenazi service, consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		• consists of ten verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		1			- verses. The first six speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Psalm 63:2 "To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." The Sanctuary is the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		1			reminding them that speak of God the eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." the Temple complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be					HE is the master.
eternal, all-powerful and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary." complex. Our homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be				Psalm 63:2 "To see	The Sanctuary is and ever- ruling Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my seen thee in the sanctuary." seen thee in the sanctuary." homes can become the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be				thy power and thy	the Temple
Creator of the universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my sanctuary." the "temple" model of the Lord's house. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		•		glory, so as I have	complex. Our universe. The next four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		_		seen thee in the	homes can become four verses are more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my Fintertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the clord's floads. Entertainment brought in by various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		=		sanctuary."	the "temple" model more personal in nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my				·	of the Lord's house.
nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my		four verses are			Entertainment nature. Here, God is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my various vicarious means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		more personal in is much closer to the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my means may challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		II
the individual worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my challenge us today as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		is much closer to worshiper, his hopes and his fears. "He is my as it did in the past! On the other hand, our homes may be		the individual hopes and his fears. "He is my On the other hand, our homes may be		worshiper, his fears. "He is my our homes may be		hopes and his
God. mv
,··· j		God, my

Psalm 64:10 "The righteous shall be glad in the LORD AND shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory."	the model to prepare us daily to live with Him, in His house, and in His city. The biblical word emunah (and its other forms) which is often translated as "belief" really means "trust" or "confidence" (Encyclopedia Judaica Jr.)
Psalm 65:9 "Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, (grain) when thou hast so provided for it."	Another name for the Lord is Water or Living Waters. The name for heaven in Hebrew is "Shamayim." It means, "from the waters!" Water comes from heaven and so does the Lord. Many images of water are used in the scriptures
Psalm 66:19-20 "But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me."	He hears me!
Psalm 69:32-33 "The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God. For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners."	"To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house." (Isaiah 42:7) "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;" (Isaiah 61:1)

Psalm 70:1 "Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O Lord."	He is my Deliverer!
Psalm 71:8 "Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day."	May I relate all that I choose to learn as a testimony of my Savior.
Psalm 72:19 "And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen."	The creator!
Psalm 77:6 "I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search."	Abide with Me; 'Tis Eventide, Text: M. Lowrie Hofford, 1825–1888, Music: Harrison Millard, 1830–1895 (Hymn)
Psalm 78:13-16 "He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. He clave the rocks in the wilderness	The Savior of the Exodus. He parted the red sea; He was a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. He is the Rock of Salvation who provided Living Waters.

and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He brought streams also out of the rock and caused waters to run down like rivers."
Psalm 85:2 "Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin."	"I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." (Jeremiah 31:31) Remembering our sins keeps reminding us of His mercy!
Psalm 86:12 "I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my	" put my name upon the children of Israel" (Numbers

6:27) "Thus shall my church be called in the last days, even The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints" (Doctrine and Covenants 115:4).